CROSSFILING FOR EXAMS

Candidates who are crossfiling for examinations with other jurisdictions should indicate on their applications that they have crossfiled with other agencies and specify the examination site at which they will be tested.

It is the candidates' responsibility to ensure that he/she has filed an application with each individual agency, and that all agencies are aware of which examination site he/she has chosen.

If you are taking a New York State exam, you must sit at the NYS exam site
