Additional Information Collected During Inspection

Comments

Heather indicated that she feels it is impractical to wash and sanitize ladles and spoons that are used during service each time. We had a conversation and the solution to this will be that while serving foods for dinner or lunch a ladle may be left in the container AS LONG AS THE HANDLE IS NOT SUBMERGED IN THE FOOD PRODUCT. If the handle becomes submerged in the food product the potential for contamination of the food product must be evaluated. After the lunch or dinner rush each service utensil will be removed from the container and washed. Cold holding of foods at 45 F during inspection Hot holding of foods at 140 F during inspection Cook foods to 165 F before service Any questions or concerns please call us 315-539-1945 Picture of walk in cooler included.
